

FSCD 2025 in Birmingham (Proposal)

Why Birmingham?

- ▶ A leading university in the second city of UK.
- ▶ Strong local research group closely aligned with FSCD.
- ▶ Experience: CSL '18, Tableaux '21, Proof Society '24.
- ▶ Excellent transport links and conference facilities.

Workshop of the world

A major international centre

Theory group (permanent members)

Benedikt Ahrens

Miriam Backens

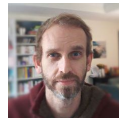

Rajesh Chitnis

Anupam Das

Martín Escardó

Eric Finster

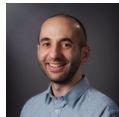

Dan Ghica

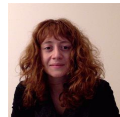

Mirco Giacobbe

Achim Jung

Paul Levy

Sonia Marin

Steve Vickers

Vincent Rahli

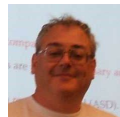

Uday Reddy

Eike Ritter

Aaron Sloman

Paul Taylor

Practical matters

▶ Organisation

- ▶ Chairs: Anupam Das and Paul Blain Levy.
- ▶ + Martín Escardó, Eric Finster, Sonia Marin & Vincent Rahli.
- ▶ Volunteers: 3–4 postdocs and 10–15 PhD students.

▶ Dates: 30 June – 6 July or 7 July – 13 July

▶ Hybrid participation

- ▶ Excellent hybrid facilities and experience.
- ▶ Current plan: free to stream.

▶ Estimated costs (based on CSL '18 + inflation)

- ▶ Early registration: £460 (530€/570$)
- ▶ Student registration: £300 (345€/372$)
- ▶ Workshops: £40 (45€/50$) per day

Aston Webb building

Location

▶ Transport

- ▶ Birmingham Airport and London airports well-connected.
- ▶ Campus train station (10 minutes to centre).
- ▶ Bus links to surrounding areas.

▶ Accommodation

- ▶ Large hotel area in centre (£50–£100/night)
- ▶ Campus hotel (£75/night) and potentially student dorms.
- ▶ Hotels, hostels and Airbnb options in surrounding areas.

▶ Food

- ▶ Many catering options on campus and nearby.
- ▶ Diverse and fusion cuisine, including famous Balti Triangle.
- ▶ Vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free options widely available.

Welcome to Brum!

